

Song of Joy

Hear the song of joy, my brother

The song of joy for those who wait a new day

Come, sing, dream singing

Live dreaming the new sun

Under which men will be brothers again

Come, sing dream singing

Live dreaming the new sun

Under which men will be brothers again

If in your path there are just sadness and

Bitter cry of the complete loneliness,

Come sing dream singing

Live dreaming the new sun

Under which men will be brothers again
