HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PUJA

The idols of Mother Durga, made of river clay, have been specially brought from a traditional potter's corner at Kumortuli, in northern Kolkata, Bengal.

Traditional drummers from Bengal, known as Dhakis, will rent the air with festive rhythm and enchanting beats.

Kumari Puja will be conducted on the Maha Ashtami Day where young, unmarried girls will be worshipped as Mother Durga.

NAVARATRI HOMA

|| Sarvamangala Mangalye Shive Sarvartha Sadhike
Sharanye Triambake Gauri, Narayani Namostute ||

The embodiment of auspiciousness and the Mother of all three worlds, we bow to Thee

Navaratri is traditionally celebrated in honour of Devi, the Divine Mother. Spiritual practices such as homas are conducted to heal the mind and the body, provide solace and usher in peace throughout the world.

In gratitude and reverence to the Divine Mother Sai, do participate in the Navaratri Homa.
